

nerej

THE LARGEST WEEKLY COMMERCIAL/INVESTMENT NEWSPAPER IN THE WORLD

Reprint

nerej.com

Friday, March 22, 2013

Greater Boston Commercial Properties sells 135,000 sq. ft. in Milford

MILFORD, MA Bret O'Brien of Greater Boston Commercial Properties, Inc. (GBCP)

Bret O'Brien

recently represented the buyer Planet Aid in the purchase of 47 Sumner St. in Milford. The property consists of a 135,000 s/f single story manufacturing building on 7.62 acres of industrial zoned land. Planet Aid purchased the building in order to relocate its regional distribution hub from 1 Cross St. in Holliston which it had out-

47 Sumner Street - Milford, MA

grown in recent years. Planet Aid is a nonprofit organization that collects and recycles used clothes and shoes and supports international development projects. The collection boxes can be found across many major metropolitan areas of the United States, helping to save resources and lessen environmental impacts by reducing waste. Planet Aid supports community-based projects that improve health, increase income, aid vulnerable children, train teachers and enhance the overall quality of life for people across the globe.